*Call to Worship Lynn Thornton, Liturgist

Gracious God, we are listening and yearning for love—from you and with those closest to us and our neighbors far away.

Forgive us when we build walls around our hearts,
keeping you and others at a distance.

We build those walls because we are afraid to show our need or because we have been hurt and want to protect ourselves.

We turn away from the needs of our neighbors because they will take our time.

We act in ways that hurt the earth.

We dominate or discredit the lives of others

because we care more about our own comforts.

Help us build bridges of connection, gardens of peace,

and playgrounds of joy and laughter where love and understanding can thrive. Amen.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name; thy kingdom come; thy will be done; on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
